

ABOUT WENDY

Wendy Metcalfe is a Taupō-based Move Planner with a background in architectural space planning and a personal history of supporting her own parents through multiple relocations over two decades.

That lived experience — combined with her professional background — is what sets Designing Moves apart.

Experience:

- Operations Manager, Auckland-based senior moving service
- Architectural space planning expertise (Mark Rantin Architecture)
- Supported her parents through 5 moves from age 65+

"I understand this — not from a textbook, but from experience."

Designing Moves

Turn Overwhelming into Organised

"The hardest part of moving isn't the boxes.
It's the decisions - and nobody talks about that"

The Downsize Dilemma

The decision to move or downsize brings questions that can feel impossible:

- "What fits in the new place?"
- "How do I sort 30+ years of belongings?"
- "Where do I even start?"
- "I can't do this alone"
- "My family want to help but we keep disagreeing"

This isn't just a logistics problem. It's an emotional one.

"There had to be a better way. That's why Designing Moves exists."

MOVING TO TAUPŌ?

Enquiries from outside Taupō are warmly welcomed. Consultations available by arrangement.

The 4-STREAM SYSTEM

At the heart of every Designing Moves engagement is a simple, proven framework. Every possession is assessed once, sorted respectfully, and placed into one of four streams:

What this means in practice:

- Nothing is rushed or discarded without thought
- Items of value are identified and realised — not lost
- Family members are involved fairly and transparently
- Work happens in your own home, at your own pace
- A cooling-off period protects every decision

"Every possession gets assessed once, sorted into the right stream, then action is taken. Nothing falls through the cracks."
